Team Entries: A rifle team consists of five (5) shooters. Teams consisting of four shooters may enter competition by accepting a "blind score" for the fifth shooter. A Detachment may enter more than one team, but only one team from each Detachment may be entered in the Postal Match. For Pistol, two- and four-person teams may be entered.

National Marine Corps League Postal Match: The scores fired in the National Match Course (Rifle) and the Bullseye Pistol matches may be submitted for entry in the National Postal Match (additional fees apply).

Directions: Follow the New York State Thruway to Exit 24 - Albany. Take the first exit for US 20/Western Avenue (this puts you southbound on the Adirondack Northway). Continue for .5 miles to the end of the highway. Turn right onto Western Avenue/US 20 (West), and proceed for 3.7 miles to the traffic light at Foundry Road. Turn left, proceed .6 miles and bear right on Grant Hill Road. Continue for .6 miles. After crossing the steel deck bridge, turn right through the gate into the Training Site.

Facilities: There is ample parking for cars and RVs (no hookups or waste dump), and a bivouac area for tents. No potable water is available at the site, but showers and rest rooms are available. You are advised to bring toilet paper, plenty of drinking water, insect repellent, a flashlight, and food and beverages. Please note: There will be no break for lunch during the conduct of the matches. This is a military site and no alcoholic beverages are permitted on the grounds. For those who prefer lodgings offsite, there are several motels and restaurants a short distance from the range. The emergency phone number at the Range Headquarters is: (518) 456-8990.
